Joe and Amy are running together along the Tamsui River. They run together three times a week. Joe is always happy to run with Amy. They always talk with each other along the way. Yesterday evening, Amy told Joe the big news. She joined the Kaohsiung City Marathon. She was very happy and wanted to train herself much harder. However, Joe told her not to train too hard. Also, it might be better to run a little every day, or she might hurt herself. Amy thought it was a good idea. From now on, she plans to go running just for thirty minutes after work every day, have healthier food, and also go to the gym twice a week. She also hopes she can become a good running coach in the future.

Hello, I am Jason. In the past, history was not an interesting subject to me. I listened to the teacher in class, finished my homework on time, and studied for the tests, but I was never good at history. To me, history was only for the tests. This year, we have a new history teacher, Mrs. Lin. Her history is very different. For example, in today's history class, we watched a great movie. It was about the history of Thanksgiving in the U.S.A. Mrs. Lin asked some questions about the movie, and we talked about them together. Then, I finished a worksheet with my classmates. I really learned a lot through the movie. I enjoyed today's history class very much. Thanks to Mrs. Lin, I love history now!

Jason: I'm back.
 Mr. Chen: Hi, Jason. How was your school trip?
 Jason: Great! My teacher took us to Blue Water Zoo. It was interesting. My classmates and I had a very good time. Dad, do you know what Mola mola is?
 Mr. Chen: I have no idea. What is it?
 Jason: It's the most interesting fish I've ever seen. It looks like(看起來像) it has a big head but doesn't have a body. It's so special. I hope you can see it, too. There are so many interesting fishes and sea animals in the water zoo.
 Mr. Chen: It sounds interesting. Maybe we can find time to go there together. We can also take Grandpa and Grandma with us.
 Jason: How about next Friday? It's a holiday. You don't have to go to work, right?
 Mr. Chen: Right. Call Grandma to see if she and Grandpa have time on Friday.
 Jason: Yeah!
