When you need to see a doctor, you'll surely want to see a good one. But there is one important thing you may never thought about: Has your doctor rested enough?

Doctors in our country often have to work 34 hours or longer without sleep. Most of them work 104 hours a week, and some even 150. (There are only 168 hours a week!) One report said that a doctor who works such long hours can't think more clearly than a drunk driver. Another found that doctors that sleep 5.8 fewer hours than the week before might make 22% more serious mistakes. Without a doubt, no one wants to get in a car that is driven by a drunk driver. So, how safe would you feel when you are under the care of a tired doctor?

Sadly this problem has been around for a long time. There are no laws about it and the bosses of the hospitals don't care about it, either. And that's why we doctors are asking you to join us on the street this Sunday. Fight together with us on the street, so we can fight better for your life in the hospital.

Jack: How did you get the tickets?! They were all sold out months ago!

Andy: And a table for two at Rose.

Andy: Now, it's yours. You and Jane can have a great dinner there after the game.

Jack: Wait a moment. This is just not like you. What's the catch?

Andy: Well, you know this Friday I'm leaving for my vacation in Japan, and....

Jack: And what?

Andy: And I was thinking if Kitty could stay with you next week.

Jack: The whole week?!

Andy: Please! I can't just leave her in my apartment.

Have you ever seen a pumpkin which looks like a funny face? They may not look great, but they taste just as delicious as the pretty ones. These strange-looking fruit and vegetables are called “seconds.” Sadly, they seldom arrive at your table because of their appearance. Why? Because supermarkets don’t want to buy them from farmers—they believe their customers only love beautiful things. Because of these “seconds,” some farmers lose a lot of money.

Lovely Market wishes to change this. We’re helping to sell these “seconds.” That way, farmers can save them from the trash can, and you can get them at a lower price.

 - 2. You can choose as many as five kinds of fruit and vegetables a box.
 - 3. Service charge: NT$ 30.
 - 4. No service charge if order is over NT$ 1200.

What kind of place do you usually choose to stay for the night during a trip? Cheap hostels that put you and five other strangers in the same bedroom? Or expensive hotels which may make you feel like you don't get the things you pay for? If both of them sound terrible to you, here's another choice: holiday apartments.

In a holiday apartment, you have more space than what a hotel room can give you. Everything in the apartment is at your disposal. The living room, the kitchen, and of course, the bedrooms are all for your own use. Some apartments even have a lovely garden or a game room. You'll feel at home in the holiday apartment. The best thing is, a holiday apartment is not expensive. The price for a holiday apartment is for two people, and the apartment is often cheaper than a hotel room for two. You only need to pay a little more for the third or fourth person. If you travel with friends or your family, a holiday apartment will be your best choice!
